Find passionate professionals in the homelessness sector

Homeless Link is the national membership charity for the homelessness sector. We work to make services better and campaign for policy change that will help to end homelessness.

Why is a sector-wide job board important?

The Homeless Link Job Board is designed to support the sector in finding the very best staff and volunteers to deliver the highest quality services for people experiencing homelessness. We understand the unique challenges that come with recruitment and retention in the homelessness sector and are here to support you.

Why advertise with Homeless Link?

Relevant audience

We have over 2000 potential candidates signed up for job alerts; meaning that the jobs you post will be sent straight to candidates who are passionate about ending homelessness and actively seeking employment in the homelessness sector.

Sector knowledge

We are the only job board specifically for the homelessness sector. As the national membership organisation for frontline homelessness services, we understand the unique challenges services face in recruitment.

Budget friendly options

With multiple options available to suit the needs of your organisation, including free adverts for volunteer roles and roles ring-fenced for lived experience, advertising your job with Homeless Link ensures that you get the most for your budget with the flexibility to suit your organisation's needs.
